Louis L. Moore

Managing Principal

Louis L. Moore is a Managing Principal of Banc Consulting Partners. He has nearly 25+ years of experience in the banking and financial services industry. Lou has assisted more than 200 bank clients in the design and implementation of benefit plans that help attract, retain and reward talent. Prior to helping found Banc Consulting Partners, Lou worked with Clark Consulting, an industry leader in bank-owned life insurance and executive and director benefit plans.

Lou specializes in the design and implementation of compensation and nonqualified benefit plans for officers and directors of financial institutions. He works with banks to develop an understanding of current and long-term needs; provides an analysis of existing benefit practices; and then prepares recommendations that address impact on cash flows, earnings, shareholder value, and other bank objectives to facilitate board approval. Lou also works with bank accountants, attorneys and consultants to provide and coordinate the financial strategy using bank-owned life insurance (BOLI) to minimize the impact of plan cost on earnings.

Lou has authored several articles for the Ohio Bankers League (OBL) and the Kentucky Bankers Association (KBA) as well as advising them on pertinent regulatory changes affecting their members. For the past several years he has managed the endorsement from the OBL and KBA as a long-term business partner.

Lou obtained his bachelor's degree in economics and business administration from Baldwin-Wallace University in Berea, Ohio. He has passed the Series 6 and 63 qualifying exams with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and is a licensed insurance representative. Lou played soccer while attending Baldwin-Wallace University and was a four year NCAA varsity letterman. He competes both nationally and internationally in duathlons through the United States Triathlon Association and International Triathlon Union.
