Matthew C. Kocin
Client Relationship Manager

Matthew C. Kocin is a Client Relationship Manager with Banc Consulting Partners. He has over 12 years of experience in the banking and financial services industry. Prior to joining Banc Consulting Partners, Matthew worked in public accounting as an Audit Manager at Crowe Horwath LLP, one of the largest public accounting and consulting firms in the United States.

Matthew is experienced in the application of United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, internal controls, financial reporting, and regulatory compliance. He has extensive knowledge of community banking as well as a strong understanding of operational and financial performance. His in-depth knowledge of bank-owned life insurance and non-qualified executive benefit plans, coupled with his specialization in the banking industry, makes him an invaluable resource for the initial design and ongoing management of bank-owned life insurance and non-qualified benefit plans.

Matthew attended Miami University in Oxford, Ohio where he studied accounting and obtained his bachelor's degree in Business. He is a licensed Certified Public Accountant and member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Matthew serves as a Trustee on the Foundation Board for the Slovene Home for the Aged, a not-for-profit organization. He enjoys spending time with his wife and two-sons, being outdoors, brewing craft beer, and trying hard not to be the worst golfer on the course.
